

11 September 2011

There's No 'I' in Team -

Keeping Your Focus on the Game -
Part 1 of 4

SELF-VIEW QUIZ:

- 1.) How do you react when another car is trying to cut in front of you?
  1. You slow down and let them pass.
  2. You don't speed up but you also don't slow down.
  3. You speed up and make sure that they cannot pass.
- 2.) When you pass by a mirror or a window you:
  1. Pass by without noticing.
  2. Make a quick check to see if you look alright.
  3. Stop and take a good look to see if you look alright.
- 3.) When someone that you are not too fond of comes to talk to you, you:
  1. Stop and have a genuine conversation.
  2. Make some small talk then leave.
  3. Pick up your cell phone and pretend to make a call.
- 4.) When having a conversation with someone, you:
  1. Listen and take a genuine interest in what they have to say.
  2. Wait for them to finish so that you can talk.
  3. Do most of the talking.

1.) WORLDLY SELF-VIEW.

Definition of Self-Esteem: A favourable impression of oneself. To admire or praise oneself. (2 Timothy 3:1-4)

Conceited: Only interested in oneself.

Boastful: Speaking of oneself or ones accomplishments.

Ungrateful: A desire to be served.

Arrogant : To be condescending - or to think of and treat others as less important.

2.) GODLY SELF-VIEW

Definition of Self-Worth: To understand or realize ones value & importance. (Romans 12:3)

Sober Judgement: Marked by temperance, moderation, or seriousness. (James 1:22-25)

Measure of Faith: We must measure ourselves by the Word of God.

Jesus' Example: (Philippians 2:5-8)

He did not take advantage of His position.

He was not forced into His roles of servant hood.

He was willing to make every sacrifice.

"We must not become distracted by an over exaggerated sense of ourselves but become focused by an over exaggerated sense of God."