Phil. 3:12-16

<sup>12</sup> “Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. <sup>13</sup> Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead

The background of the slide is a dark, textured surface, possibly a rock or a piece of wood. A large, dark, almost black leaf is positioned diagonally across the middle of the frame. In the lower right corner, there is a small, glowing yellow and black butterfly, which appears to be resting on the surface. The overall lighting is dim, creating a somber and contemplative atmosphere.

Phil. 3:12-16

<sup>14</sup> I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Therefore let us, as many as are mature, have this mind; and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal even this to you.

<sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, to the degree that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us be of the same mind."

2 Tim 4:7-8

7 "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup> Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing."

The background of the slide is a dark, textured surface, possibly a rock or a piece of wood. A large, dark, almost black leaf is positioned horizontally across the middle of the frame. In the lower right corner, a glowing yellow and black butterfly is visible, its wings spread. The butterfly's body and wings are bright yellow with black markings, creating a stark contrast against the dark background.
